

Society

by JEAN ELIOT

(Continued from Page Fourteen.)

home, for a few days, returning to their Washington home the latter part of next week.

Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee, who has been spending some time at the Shoreham, has left Washington to join her husband, Colonel Lee, who is in command of the Culver Military Academy, at Culver Ind.

Mrs. Joseph Galliard Martin, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Samuel Wallis, for the last six weeks, has returned to her home in Vicksburg, accompanied by her small son.

Otis Skinner will be the guest of honor and speaker next Tuesday afternoon at the College Women's Club. The reception which will be held that afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, will take the place of the weekly tea usually held on Monday afternoons.

Dr. Robert Simpson Woodward, president of the Carnegie Institution, has gone to New York and is staying at the Pennsylvania Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sedgwick and Miss Christina Sedgwick left

Stockbridge, Mass., yesterday to come to Washington for the winter. They have leased the residence at 1222 Sunderland place.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson have taken Mrs. Norrie Sellers' house in East Sixty-third street, New York, as their permanent residence.

Miss Eliza Seidmore, who passed the summer in Japan, has returned and reopened her apartment at Stoneleigh Court for the winter.

Mrs. Watson Freeman Clark and her daughter, Miss Charlotte Freeman Clark, will leave tomorrow for Waco, Tex., where Miss Clark will represent the District of Columbia at the Princesses Ball to be given on Tuesday night in connection with the cotton exposition. Miss Clark, who is just eighteen, until recently a student at the Cathedral School for Girls, was selected for this honor by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. Each of the forty or more young women invited to represent their respective States will be entertained for five days in the Texas city.

Mrs. John C. Fremont, who has been at her summer home in New Jersey, has returned to Washington and opened her house, 2119 H street. She will have her mother, Mrs. Anna Anderson, with her for the winter.

Miss Mildred Williams, daughter of the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. William R. Williams, will spend the winter in Washington under the chaperonage of her cousin, Mrs. Eliphail F. Andrews. Miss Williams made her debut in Richmond, Va., last winter.

The date of the talk which Mrs. Fethick-Lawrence, the distinguished British suffragist, is to give on "World Disarmament" has been changed from Monday until Tuesday of next week. She will address an open mass meeting which will be held at the Belasco Theater at 4:30 o'clock under the auspices of a committee of prominent women of which Mrs. Henry Villard is chairman.

WADSWORTH TO RETURN.
Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., will return to Washington tomorrow and open their house here for the winter.

Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell had a luncheon yesterday at the Alibi Club in honor of Countess von Moltke-Huitfeldt, who is the guest of the Misses Patten.

Miss Mary Sue Donaldson, daughter of Col. and Mrs. T. Q. Donaldson, has selected December 16 as the date of her marriage to Major Caesar B. Rucker, U. S. A. The wedding will take place at 9 o'clock at the church in Greenville, S. C., the Rev. John O. Willson, president of Lander College, Greenwood, S. C., officiating. He is the bride's maternal grandfather. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Davis Furman, at 520 Crescent avenue, Greenville, S. C.

Miss Donaldson made her debut in Manila, and since coming to Washington with her parents has been one of the most popular girls in society. She will go to New York tomorrow to complete the purchase of her trousseau and will go to Greenville about December 1. Colonel and Mrs. Donaldson will join her there some days before the wedding and afterward will go to Florida for a month.

Col. and Mrs. Donaldson and Miss Donaldson will receive informally on Sunday afternoons, November 14 and 21 from 4 to 7 o'clock at their residence in Kalorama road.

PRINCE DE BERN WITNESS.
Prince de Bearn, charge d'affaires of France, and the military attache of the embassy, Gen. Louis Collardet, were witnesses for the bridegroom at the marriage yesterday of Lieut. Baron de Villiers du Terrage to Miss Ruth King, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David H. King, Jr. This was simply celebrated at 9 East Seventy-ninth street, New York, the house which the bride and her sister, Mrs. Charles de Rham, Jr., had taken for the autumn.

Immediately after the ceremony there was a brief reception and later Baron and Baroness de Villiers left for a trip, after which they will be for a few weeks in New York. It is their intention to sail for France about December 15.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan Ritter, who are spending a few days at the Shoreham have taken an apartment at the Langdon, Fifth avenue and Fifty-sixth street, New York, for the early winter and will not reopen their home here until February.

Mrs. Bernhard Berlin, of Philadelphia, arrived yesterday to visit Mrs. Paul Yoder, wife of the secretary of the Federal Trade Commission, in their new home in Chevy Chase.

Theo. Hunt, of Tulsa, Okla., who spent the past few days as the guest of his brother, John Franklin Hunt, at the Cecil, has left Washington and route for Barbadoes Islands, where he will have the post of vice consul.

Maj. and Mrs. Gist Blair, who were in Europe for six months, returned yesterday to the old Blair home, 1831 Pennsylvania avenue. They have been in New England since their return from abroad and Mrs. Blair visited Mrs. Thomas T. Galt at Asterville, Mass.

NAVY RELIEF BALL.
Among those who have taken boxes for the Navy Relief Ball, to be given on Thanksgiving night, November 25, at the New Willard, are Mrs. Gordon Woodbury, Mrs. W. H. Brownson, Mrs. F. L. Chapin, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. R. N. Thompson and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh.

Among the additional patronesses are Mrs. E. D. White, wife of Chief Justice White; Mrs. David Houston, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury; Mrs. Seaton Schroeder, Mrs. Alexander Sharpe, Jr., Mrs. C. C. Glover, Mrs. W. W. Galbraith, Mrs. F. L. Chapin, Jr., Mrs. R. S. Griffin, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Henry W. Fitch and Mrs. B. H. Buckingham.

Captain Enoch has been made chairman of the men's floor committee.

Miss Florence Marie Girouard, daughter of the late M. Alphonse Girouard, of this city, formerly of Indianapolis, and Hartwell N. Williams, of this city, were married on Wednesday evening in the Church of the United Brethren, where the bride wore a soloist in the choir. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Charles Fultz, in the presence of only the members of the two families. Mr. Enoch, baritone, of the choir, sang several appropriate solos. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue tricot, with a hat of the same color. After an impromptu reception at the church, the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip. They will be at home later at 2321 Twentieth street. The bride is one of the most gifted musicians of Washington, with a voice of unusual power and beauty.

An interesting meeting was held at the Washington Arts Club last night. Justice Wendell Stafford, of the District Supreme Court, made an address in which he said that poetry is the inspiration for much accomplishment in the world. Justice Stafford traced the history of verse and read a number of original selections. Col. Charles L. Frailey, violinist, and Miss Aldrich, pianist, gave the musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Miller were the hosts at the club dinner preceding the lecture. About sixty guests were present.

The Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity of the George Washington University, has opened its new home at 1603 Massachusetts avenue.

BUSINESS ADJUSTMENT SALE

IN THE STORE OF
J. E. CUNNINGHAM & CO.

The actual photo taken Thursday morning showing the crowds at the opening of the BUSINESS ADJUSTMENT SALE of J. E. CUNNINGHAM & CO., 316 Seventh street, where thousands of eager and enthusiastic buyers thronged the big three-story building all day Thursday and today---where Coats, Suits, Dresses, Blouses were sold at Prices Beyond the Belief of the Human Mind. Sale will be continued from day to day. Entire and complete $300,000 stock goes in the big BUSINESS ADJUSTMENT SALE.

COME TOMORROW

New Bargains and Surprises
Await Your Coming

DOORS OPEN AT 9:30 SHARP

The House of Fashion

Silverton's
1116 G Street

SATURDAY COAT DAY

Save $15 to $40

The Best Coats in Town

Smart Wrappy Styles and Tailored Models. Fur Collars and Self Trimmed.

Velours, Silvertones, Boliviars and Other Coats

$35 $49.50 $59.50 $69.50

Handsome Big Fur Collar Wraps

Finest Exclusive Cloths. Chamostyne, Crystal, Camelean and Luxurious Cloths.

$89 $98 $125

Beautiful Seal Plush Coats

Look like Hudson Seal Fur,

$59.50 $79.50 $95

Other Ideal Plush Coats, $35

Kafka's

THE SHOP FOR YOUNG FOLKS AND YOUTHFUL APPAREL FOR EVERYWOMAN

F at Tenth St.

A Blouse Sale

THAT WILL STARTLE ALL WASHINGTON

We have gone through an entire stock of Beautiful Silk Blouses and Overblouses. To reduce a heavy stock we have cut the price without regard to cost. Every Silk Blouse in the store has been included in this Great Sale. In three groups—All Reduced, as follows:

Group No. 1—All $5.95, $7 and $8 Blouses

Comprising Fine, Sheer White Nets, White and Flesh Crepe de Chine, Black and Navy Georgettes, Black and Navy Jap Silks. There are several hundred dainty Blouses in this group, not one of which could be purchased at cost for this price. All sizes. You will want several. All greatly reduced to close at.....

$3.95

Group No. 2—All $9, $10 & $12.50 Silk Blouses

In this lot you will find Rich, Heavy Georgettes in white, flesh, navy, brown and black; Fine Quality Crepe de Chine, in black, white, flesh and navy, and Heavy Quality Silk Pongee; hand embroidered and beaded in the newest effects brought out this season. All sizes. All marked to close at the greatly reduced price of .....

$5.95

Group No. 3—All $15, $17, $19 to $25 Silk Blouses and Overblouses

Fashion's favored modes in the very finest of Tricotine, Taffeta, Georgette, Crepe de Chine and Satin Blouses. Every new shading is included—Taupe, Figue, Jade Green, Brown, Coral, Black and White; surprise effects, square or round collar ideas, iridescent beading, eyelet embroidery, some fine lace trimmed; in fact, every conceivable idea found only in the very finest Blouses. All sizes including extra sizes, 38, 40 and up to 42. All reduced for this sale to .....

$9.75

Not a Silk Blouse in stock is Reserved At Our Finest Blouse and Overblouses Included at the Above Prices